Continuous deceptions and intrigues of the military clique disclosed by General Izumi.

Full Translation:

Since the termination of war, the true character of the military clique of deceit and intrigue has been gradually disclosed to the public. And now at last we have come to know directly the inside story of the clique, which began with the so-called "March Incident" and ended with the Great East Asia War. From the former Inspector-general, Izumi, of military education, this important incident has been regarded generally as an excitation of the Army and according to the inside story, he was one of the men who were considered "intriguer" by the military clique. During a recent visit to S.M., Izumi, in an unusually forceful manner for a 70 year old man, made the following speech:

"The divine tempest is blowing, just now and when the military clique is swept away completely by this divine tempest, a new sun will be born."

The so-called 'March Incident' in 1931 was a coup d'etat conducted by the military chiefs, MODO, KANNO, NAKANO, SATORU, INOUE and HARA. (NODA made the phone), and Izumi, SAKA, and aimed at the seizure of political power and the installation of UOMI, at that time Army Minister, as Premier. But before this plan was executed, Izumi, YAMASAKA, TAKIHATA persuaded Izumi to abandon his plan and notified Izumi, that at that time Chief of the Military Affairs Section, that I could not agree to dispatch soldiers for a coup d'etat even though General UOMI had agreed. Therefore the scheme failed. The military chiefs who were the plotters were placed in an embarrassing position, but so far have gone unpunished for their misdeeds. And this is the very thing that corrupted the Army."

The 'October Incident' of the same year was conducted along the same line, but this time the persons involved were field officers instead of general officers. The leader of the incident' was KUMIKO, KINSHO, and this time the conspirators decided to set up ministers
